I am authorized by the Major-General Commanding Department of East Tennessee to raise and recruit a regiment of Infantry. Our military authorities understand that the order has been issued for the enrollment of the conscripts of East Tennessee. The law will be rigidly unforced in its amended form. Those who profer selecting their own officers and who desire the usual bounty should volunteer at once, now is the only opportunity we will have of making our choice. The drama of war is being cancited on the largest scale on this continent, and every man between 18 and 45 must do his part, and this is desirable by those who would cherish the immortal principles of liberty and equality. Now is the time. The shouts of our victorious armies are borne upon every breeze, soon we will have A Card. the time. The shouts of our victorious armies are borne upon every breeze, soon we will have the joyous news of the disenshrallment of Maryland and redemption of Tennessee. The fetters of despotism that have so long bound down Missouri, and Kentucky are snapping and ere long their bright emblems of sovereignty and power will rise amid the Southern Constellation. We are called upon to aid this grand consummation and force the enemy to sue for peace.

Responsible gentlemen engaged in, or desiring to engage in raising companies, and who would prefer going in our regiment will report to me in person or by letter Sweetwater, Tennessee.

RECEIVER'S OFFICE,

Knoxville, Sept. 3d, 1862.

Editor of the Post: Will you do me the favor to publish, for the information of the people of East Tennessee, the subjoined "Sec. 3" of the amended sequestration law of the Confederate States. It will be seen that it is the duty of all per-sons having in their hands money, prop-erty, effects and evidences of debt, be-longing to an alien enemy, not only speedily to inform the Receiver, but at once to pay over the money, and to de-liver to him such property and effects and evidences of debt, etc.; and in case of failure to do so, the Receiver is directed to move against the parties as in ease. to move against the parties as in cases of contempt. All persons, therefore, who have such money, evidences of debt, etc., in their possession, are carnestly requested to comply with the law without fur-ther delay, and thus avoid the costs and trouble of proceedings in Court to enforce their compliance. The class of persons alluded to embraces attorneys at law, clerks of courts, trustees, agents and all persons acting in fiduciary character.— such persons are not debtors to alien enemies as referred to in the law. By Sec. 14 of said law, it is provided that all persons owing debts to alien enemies shall, within three months from the passage of the act, give information thereof to the Receiver, upon which the Court will decree sequestration, but no execution shall cree sequestration, but no execution shall issue on such decree except for the interest which shall accrue on the same at the end of each year, until twelve months after peace shall have been declared between the Confederate States and the United States, or until otherwise directed by law. Those who have property, money and evidences of debt in their possession. to renew their subscription, are requested and evidences of debt in their possession belonging to alien enemies, must report the facts, deliver the property and pay over the money immediately, whilst those who are indebted to alien enemies are only required to report the facts in order that the debts may be sequestrated. The latter class, however, may, if they choose, pay over the amount to the Receiver at any time and receive receipts and acquit-tance for the amount. The law requires them to pay the interest annually.

Alien enemies are of two classes: first, citizens of the United States, or of any of the territories thereof; secondly, it has been decided by the Confederate Court, and authoritatively announced by his Honor, the Judge, that persons living in spective dues. We shall, however, try to be with them.

"Src. 3. Be it further exacted, That it shall be the duty of every person in actual possession of, or having under his control, any money, property, effects or evidences of debt, belonging to an alien enemy, speedily to inform the Receiver, and to render an account thereof, and at once to pay over to the Receiver and deliver to him such property and effects, and evidences of debt, and such payment and delivery shall be made without regard to whether any proceedings have or have not been instituted to sequestrate the same. And any person who, after giving such information, shall fail to pay over and deliver on demand, made by the Receiver, shall stand in contempt, and the Receiver shall at once move the Court or Judge to proceed against such party as in other cases of contempt, and the Receiver shall all the party of this Act. And such payment or delivery shall fully acquit and discharge the party from all and every claim for or on account of such money, property, effects and evidences of debt. And the Receiver shall give such person a receipt, specifying the amount of money, the property, effects and evidences of debt. "Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, That it shall be evidences of debt. And the Receiver shall give such person a receipt, specifying the amount of money, the property, effects and evidences of debt paid and delivered, and the name of the alien enemy on account of whom the same shall be paid and delivered. Provided, That when the person having the possession and control of any money of an alien enemy, asserts a debt or claim. person having the possession and control of any money of an allen enemy, asserts a debt or claim, against such alien enemy in his own favor, he may file it in writing in 'he proper Court, swearing that he believes himself justify entitled to the same, and thereupon he shall not be compelled, in the first instance to pay over to the Receiver the amount thus propounded and claimed by him, but the Court shall then proceed to examine and try the validity of the said debt or claim, and decree according to the facts found and the rights and justice of the case. And if the Court decides against the debt or claim, the party setting up the same shall forthwith pay over the sum retained by him. And if the Court shall decree in favor of the debt or claim thus propounded, and it exceeds the entire amount originally in possession of such debtor or claimant, he shall pay no cests; otherwise be shall pay all costs incident to the proceedings."

What will the Result of the Battle Be?

The correspondent of the New York Herald writing about the battle fought through Thursday and Friday, thus speaks of the probable results. Says he the italic being our own :

"As I write a terrible battle is raging. and on its result must hings the war. If we are successful that part of the army under Jackson must be annihilated, and der Jackson must be annihilated, and that under Lee defcated; and if we are not successful, and the rebels overpower us. God alone can foresee the future of the Republic. But we are hopeful; for thank God and Lincoln's backbone, McClellan is again at the head of the army.

I scarcely know where to begin to write up the events of the day. They, or the report of them, come in so thick and fast, that one almost goes crazy in listening to them!

We find the following item in a Yankee letter from Battle Creek to Forney's (Philadelphia) Press. Mr. Smith may now endeavor to turn his coat : Large numbers of the Union citizens of this county come into our camps, and we derive very valuable information from such sources. What is still better, large numbers leave our camps, but have formed themselves into a company, under a man named Smith, a rich farmer, residing a few miles cast of "Jasper, and drill three times a day. They draw rations, and subject themselves to the discipline connected with a soldier's life.— Their stories of rebel barbarities, in this portion of Tennesse, are incredible.

We need not argue the necessity of Educating none, or allude to the danger of postponing the matter till the war is over—that may be too late. Our children may graw up and be compelled to grovel in ignorance through life, if we wait for the ship of State to anchor in the haven of peace.

Parents and Guardians throughout the country Parents and Guardians throughout the country are invited to join us in the good work. These are the inducements: We have secured the services of Prof. W. A.

MASONIC FEMALE INSTITUTE. Rev. I. N. Bradshaw, Principal.

Rev. I. N. Bradshaw, Principal.

The Next Session of This institution will commence on Monday, the lat day of September next, under the direction and professorship of the Rev. Mr. Bransnaw, who has had charge of it for the last ten mouths.

The Trustees, in making this announcement, would most especially appeal to all citizens who have daughters to educate, to send them to this institution. Mr. Bradshaw has had charge of the school for the last ten months, during which time he has rendered ample, and, we might say, universal satisfaction to the Trustees, patrons and pupils. There never was a better time for men to educate their daughters than now—money is plenty— everything a farmer raises bears two prices, and the Taition to this School is the same that it was when everything was at low figures. What excuse can there be now for a man who neglects to educate his daughter? None. Because here, in Cleveland, a healthy locality, we have an Institution, with an excellent Instructor, aided by a sufficient corps of Assistants, to instruct all who may favor it with their patronage. Let one and all put their shoulder to the wheel and build up such a School as will be of incalculable benefit to us and an honor to our tewn—when he had no continued to the same of the balance devolves upon the people. We hope they may nobly perform their duty.

The Trustees are thankful to the citizens for the patronage bestowed upon Mr. Bradshaw heretofore, and are glad to know that under his addinistration, the Institution it sustained in "the better days.
